PRIVACY AND CONFIDENTIALITY POLICY AND PROCEDURE

Policy Code	CAP001.01
Person Responsible	Director
Status (Draft/Released)	Released
Date Last Reviewed	23 June 2022
Date Last Updated	23 June 2022

1.0 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

To ensure that management of participants' personal information meets all relevant legislative and regulatory requirements.

This policy and procedure applies to current and potential participants, their carers and family members.

2.0 RISK

Because people with disabilities are more vulnerable to exploitation and abuse than others in the community, workers with access to participant information automatically occupy risk-assessed roles under the NDIS Commission.

The primary risk to privacy and confidentiality arises from the collection, storage and sharing of participant information. Access by non-authorized persons may expose participants to risk. Safe storage and access policy protects participants from abuse and exploitation. This policy addresses these issues.

There is a risk that information will be shared inadvertently and without the intention to do harm. Information may be unintentionally disclosed by careless use of tablet- or phone-based software, shared with a participant's supporters against the participant's wishes, or disclosed to peers on the assumption that the information is publicly known. Cultural assumptions around sharing information are diverse and change rapidly. Social media platforms may allow participants to be identified. This risk may be minimised by:

- raising staff awareness of privacy and confidentiality
- ensuring consent is obtained before gathering data (including audio and photographic data)
- ensuring that consent is specific to the use of data, and that consent is current
- encouraging participants to provide feedback and complaints about the use of their information.

These issues are addressed in this policy.

3.0 DEFINITIONS

Personal information – Recorded information (including images) or opinion, whether true or not, from which the identity (including those up to thirty years deceased) could be reasonably ascertained.

Sensitive information – Information or an opinion about an individual's racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, membership of a political party, religious beliefs or affiliations, philosophical beliefs, membership of a professional or trade association, membership of a trade union, sexual preference or practices, or criminal record. This is also considered to be personal information.

Health information – Any information or an opinion about the physical, mental or psychological health or ability (at any time) of an individual.

Information Privacy – refers to the control of the collection, use, disclosure and disposal of information and the individual's right to control how their personal information is handled.

3.0 POLICY

AMPEY is committed to the transparent management of personal and health information about its participants and staff.

This commitment includes protecting the privacy of personal information, in accordance with the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs) set out in the Privacy Act 1988 (Cwlth) amended by the Privacy Amendment (Enhancing Privacy Protection) Act 2012 (Cwlth).

4.0 PROCEDURE

PRIVACY AND CONFIDENTIALITY POLICY AND PROCEDURE

Consent

Consent must be voluntary, informed, specific and current.

Voluntary consent: A person must be free to exercise genuine choice about whether to give or withhold consent. This means they haven't been pressured or coerced into make a decision, and they have all the information they need in a format they understand. Voluntary consent requires that the person is not affected by medications, other drugs or alcohol when making the decision.

Informed consent: A person's capacity to make decisions will vary depending on the type of decision or its complexity, or how the person is feeling on the day. The way information is provided to a person will also affect his or her capacity to make decisions. Choices must be offered in a way that the person understands, for example by using images or signing.

Support, where required, must be provided for the person to communicate their consent.

Specific consent: Consent must be sought for a specific purpose and this purpose must be understood by the participant.

Current consent: Consent cannot be assumed to remain the same indefinitely, or as the person's circumstances change. People and guardians are entitled to change their minds and revoke consent at a later time.

Collection and Storage of Personal Information.

AMPEY collects information:

- directly from participants orally or in writing;
- from third parties, such as medical practitioners, government agencies, participant representatives, carer/s, and other health service providers;
- from participant referrals; and
- from publicly available sources of information.
- AMPEY will collect sensitive information:
- only with participant consent, unless an exemption applies: e.g. the collection is required by law, court/tribunal order or is necessary to prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat to life or health;
- fairly, lawfully, and non-intrusively;
- directly from participant, if doing so is reasonable and practicable;
- only where deemed necessary to support
- service delivery to participants;
- staff activities and functions; and
- giving the participant the option of interacting anonymously, if lawful and practicable.
- AMPEY takes all reasonable steps to protect personal information against loss, interference, misuse, unauthorised access, modification, or disclosure. AMPEY will destroy, or permanently de-identify personal information that is
- no longer needed;
- unsolicited and could not have been obtained directly; or

PRIVACY AND CONFIDENTIALITY POLICY AND PROCEDURE

- not required to be retained by, or under, an Australian law or a court/tribunal order.
- AMPEY has appropriate security measures in place to protect stored electronic and hard-copy materials. AMPEY has an archiving process for participant files which ensures files are securely and confidentially stored and destroyed in due course.
- Should a breach in privacy occur, potentially exposing participant information (e.g. computer system hacked, laptop stolen etc.) the Director will immediately act to rectify the breach in accordance with organisational policy and processes.

Updating Participant Information

- To ensure that participant information is accurate, complete, current, relevant and not misleading, AMPEY checks personal details and updates participant files accordingly:
  - whenever reviewing a participant's service; and / or
  - upon being informed of changes or inaccuracies by participants or other stakeholders
- There will be no charge for any correction of personal information.
- Where AMPEY has previously disclosed participant personal information to other parties, should the participant request us to notify these parties of any change to their details, we must take reasonable steps to do so.

Disclosing information

- AMPEY respects the right to privacy and confidentiality, and will not disclose personal information except:
  - where disclosure would protect the participant and / or others;
  - where necessary for best service practice; or
  - where obligated by law.
- For these purposes, AMPEY may disclose participants' personal information to other people, organisations or service providers, including:
  - medical and allied health service providers who assist with the services we provide to participants;
  - a 'person responsible' if the participant is unable to give or communicate consent e.g. next of kin, carer, or guardian;
  - the participant's authorised representative/s e.g. legal adviser;
